

Statement of Commitment to Human Rights

At Vrissaki Beach Hotel we strive to provide a safe workplace where the human rights are respected in accordance with the collective agreements with the unions and the applicable legislation.

We are an equal opportunity employer and we support the protection of human rights of our employees, the parties we do business with and the community where we operate.

In particular the Management of Vrissaki Beach Hotel is committed to:

- Respect and foster labor-related human rights, including non-discrimination, health & safety and fair wages.
- All new employees are informed before they start to work about the terms and conditions of their employment, including pay and welfare arrangements.
- We prohibit hiring of young workers to perform any type of work that is likely to jeopardize their health, safety or morals.
- Respect children's rights and have zero tolerance of violence, any form of exploitation and abuse of children, including but not limited to sexual exploitation.
- All allegations of children exploitation will be taken seriously and investigated. Serious allegations will be reported to the relevant authorities.

All employees receive regular, ongoing training on human rights issues.

We expect that all hotel employees, suppliers and other business partners will respect human rights including children's rights.
